The Honorable Maurice H. Stans
 Director
 Bureau of the Budget
 Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Stans:

As we begin our discussions of this Agency's Fiscal Year 1969 Budget Estimates with Mr. Macy and members of his staff it occurs to me that prior to your review of our request you might like to have a first-hand briefing on the Agency and its activities.

Members of my staff have worked for many years with Mr. Roger W. Jones while he served as Assistant Director for Legislative Reference. However, I do not believe that it has ever been our privilege to give him a complete briefing and if this would be helpful to him in his new position as Deputy Director of the Bureau of the Budget we should be happy to brief him also.

I should be grateful if you and Mr. Jones could spare a few hours for such a briefing sometime soon and will be glad to make the necessary arrangements at a time convenient to you.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
 Allen W. Dulles
 Director
